

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JUNE 26, 2022

11:00AM

CONCORDIA LUTHERAN CHURCH, CONOVER NC

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation with confidence in the Words of our Lord Jesus, who gives not only bread and wine but his true body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm (1Cor 11:27-29). Reception of Holy Communion here at Concordia is a public confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar. Those who are not yet baptized, instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor or an elder.

BAPTISM OF SOLOMON REID CAMPBELL

Holy Baptism is God's loving work for us. Through water and His Word, our God, makes an everlasting promise to us. Here He places His name on us. Here He calls Himself, “Father,” because in Baptism He claims us as His children. Here we are connected to Jesus, “the Son” who has rescued us from sin and death. The Bible teaches that in Baptism we are united with Jesus in a most special way. We are joined with Him in His death and raised anew by the power of His resurrection. Thus, God's work in Baptism forgives our sins and gives us the promise of eternal life. In Baptism, we receive the Holy Spirit to believe and trust this promise until we reach His welcoming arms in heaven. Thus God's work begun in Baptism is ongoing through the Holy Spirit as He daily forgives our sins, daily gives us renewal and strength to live as holy people and daily He fills us with hope to see by faith our home with God in everlasting life. Hear now some of these promises of God expressed in His Word:

“You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.”
Galatians 3: 26-27

“But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, He saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of His mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by His grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.”
Titus 3: 4-8

Remembering God’s saving of Noah through water, St. Peter points us to the saving power of Baptism:

“This water (of the flood) symbolizes Baptism that now saves you also - not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a good conscience toward God.”
1 Peter 3: 21

P These are the promises of the Lord.

C We believe them and are glad to hear them again.

P Who brings this child to be baptized ?

Parents: We do.

P How is this child to be named?

Parents: Solomon Reid Campbell

Solomon, receive the sign of the holy cross both upon your forehead and upon your heart to mark you as one redeemed by Christ the crucified.

In Christian love you have brought Solomon to receive God’s holy gift of Baptism. From this day forth I encourage you to be witnesses to him of the blessings which God has given him today and will continue to do in his life. Remember him in your prayers. As he grows and matures be mindful of his growth in the wisdom and knowledge of the Lord. Will you therefore promise to be a faithful witness to him, bringing him to the services of God's house, and teaching him the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments? Will you help him as he grows to read and study the Holy Scriptures, to provide for his instruction in the Christian faith, that believing God's promise to him and living under this promise in communion with the Church, he may lead a godly life until the day of Jesus Christ? If so answer: we will with the help of God.

Parents: We will with the help of God.

God enable you to joyfully do this faithful and loving work and with His grace complete what we are unable to do.

Because Solomon cannot confess the faith for himself we will speak on his behalf as a testimony to the gifts God gives in this sacrament. As we have already heard, God has promised the forgiveness of sins and new life for Solomon in this sacrament. I now ask you to profess your faith in Christ Jesus, reject sin, and confess the faith of the Church, the faith in which we Baptize.

P Do you renounce the devil and all his works and all his ways?

C I do renounce them.

P Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty?

C Yes, I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

P Do you believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son?

C Yes, I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

P Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

C Yes, I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Solomon Reid Campbell, I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the T Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given you the new birth of water and the Spirit; who has forgiven all your sins; and who has adopted you as His son, strengthen you with His grace until you see His promise complete in life everlasting. God's peace go with you forever. Amen.

(A Candle is presented in remembrance of the light of Christ)

Let us pray. Lord and Giver of life, look with kindness upon Solomon and upon his family. Remind them always of Your gift to them. Enable them to be teachers and examples of Your loving kindness to Solomon. Strengthen them in their own Baptism that together they may share eternally the salvation You have given them through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen.

Through Baptism God has added Solomon Reid Campbell to His own people to declare the wonderful deeds of our Savior, who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

C We welcome you into the Lord's family. We receive you as a fellow member of the body of Christ, children of the same heavenly Father, to work with us in His Kingdom.
